A LITTLE MORE ABOUT US

For more than 16 years, Renaissance Care has proudly led the way in delivering the highest quality residential care in Scotland. With a compassionate 1100-strong team and 15 unique properties, you can be confident we have the resources and expertise to provide a truly exceptional service.

A PERSONAL CONNECTION

Our story

When Robert Kilgour launched Renaissance Care in 2004 with three homes in the Edinburgh area, he was proud to offer 80 beds and a team of 100 caring staff.

Through acquisition and organic growth, Renaissance Care has established itself as a high-quality care group employing 1100 friendly, highly skilled staff and 723 beds within a portfolio of 15 boutique residential properties.

So, while our team provides the very best in one-to-one, compassionate care, you can also be confident that it is underpinned by 16 years of professional rigour, process and qualified experience.

Our journey

Today, the Renaissance Care portfolio boasts 15 unique, high quality homes, offering a wide range of support and facilities but all dedicated to the provision of exceptional quality care. To find out more about how we got here, take a walk through our timeline:
